ALLEN J. FARMER

AT THE CORNER, 1931

NOTE

The direct descendants are all numbered consecutively from one (1) to the end of the book. The heads of families are all underlined, with the proper number enclosed in parenthesis in front of the one who is the direct descendant. As the heads of families belong to the preceding generation; by looking there for the number corresponding with that in parenthesis, you will find the family to which that person belongs.

The first plain figure after a name is the date of birth, the second the date of death. Date of marriage is in parenthesis.

As more than two full years have elapsed from the time the first page was written until the last was finished, the only wonder is that it is as near perfect as it is. A number to whom I have written could not secure all the data required, hence some few dates are unfortunately missing. I am sorry for this. I wish to thank those who helped to secure the desired information, and to send this little book forth on its mission to the descendants of George Washington Poorman and Sarah Elizabeth (Pancake) Poorman.

FIRST GENERATION

	Married	Born	Died
George Washington Poorman	(Nov. 25, 1819)	(Oct. 20, 1799)	(Feb. 20, 1871)
Sarah Elizabeth Pancake		(March 3, 1801)	(June 30, 1883)

A SHORT HISTORY OF G. W. POORMAN

Nothing is known except that his parents came to America from Holland and settled in New York where George was born. When a young man he went to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, where he met and married Sarah E. Pancake. They lived in New York until about the year 1826, when they migrated to Washington County, Pennsylvania. In 1833, the family accompanied by the John Taylor Sr., Samuel Greenwood, and the Samuel Hammer families migrated to Wayne County, Ohio. (Mrs. Poorman, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Greenwood and Mrs. Hammer were sisters born in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.)

They located a short distance from Wooster. In 1836 he purchased a quarter of land in Salt Creek Township, Wayne County, Ohio. There he built a home and reared his family. He sold the farm to his son-in-law, James Fluhart, and moved to Wooster where he died, February 20, 1871, and was buried in Nonpareil Cemetery, Franklin Township, Wayne County, Ohio.
